

About The Golfers Home

Every Sunday from 7 am to 9 am, 105.3FM THE FAN airs The Golfers Home radio show, taking listeners inside golf. Hosted by golf fanatic and award winner Steven Gribin, the show offers listeners a great menu of local and national golf:

- National and local tour up-dates with leaderboard stats and details
- Weekly co-hosting by local PGA Professionals and general managers
- Special Edition Broadcasts during Nelson and Colonial weeks plus each of the four majors
- NTPGA (North Texas PGA) Segment of the Week
- LIVE broadcasts from PGA Tour events as well as local courses and retailers
- Bi-weekly Golf outings sponsored by Hooters, played at the best public and private courses in DFW
- Interviews with golf greats such as Tiger Woods, Annika Sorenstam and Phil Mickelson

From golf instruction to live insider news, The Golfers Home is your place for all that is golf.

A Brief History

For more than 25 years, Steven Gribin has worked in radio sales and management across the United States.

Gribin has been in Dallas since 1998, and started a local golf show in 2000. Entering his 10 year of golf radio broadcasting, The Golfers Home returns to its starting place, 105.3FM. After 6 successful years on another station, Gribin has chosen to be a part of the metroplex's newest sports station, the home of the Dallas Cowboys. Steven Gribin has built The Golfers Home into one of the nations best specialty radio programs. In 2006 and again in 2008, The Golfers Home was awarded "The Best Golf Radio Show in America" by the International Network of Golf. His golf expertise has landed him spots on NBC's evening news during their sports segment as well as the title of "Golf Expert" on Yahoo! Sports.

Over the last 4 years, The Golfers Home has grown and become an integral part of the DFW golf community. Steven Gribin has been awarded the Bob Galt Award by the Northern Texas PGA for distinguished service to the local golf community.
